

MISS ELLIS WED TO MR. HUIDEKOP IN MASSACHUSETTS

Bride Made Her Debut in Washington Society Two Years Ago.

CAPITAL FOLK ARE GUESTS

Couple Will Occupy Residence
Recently Remodeled for Their Coming.

A marriage of interest to Washingtonians was solemnized at 12:30 o'clock today at St. Peter's Chapel, Oysterville, Mass., when Miss Helena Elliott became the bride of Frederic Louis Huidekoper. The bride, daughter of the late John Stuart Elliott, of New York, made her debut in Washington society about two years ago under the chaperonage of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, with whom she has made her home since childhood, and has been a great favorite here.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Crillen Ayres, and was attended by about 150 guests, many of them Washingtonians. The picturesque little church was gay with quantities of yellow and white blossoms massed against a background of greenery, and the same color scheme prevailed in the decorations at "The Ship" summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Gaff at Oysterville, where the breakfast, which followed the service, was held.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle. She wore a gown of white satin and old lace, and her veil was community air on her dark hair. Her cousin, Mrs. Cary Langhorne, formerly Miss Zedee Gaff, was matron of honor. Her costume was fashioned of two shades of yellow silk, with a hat to match. Miss Jean Hinkle, also a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Thacher, of Boston; Miss Catherine McIntock, and Miss Caroline Ogden-Jones, of Washington, were bridesmaids. They wore dainty frocks of white chiffon, made after a new model and girdled with yellow. Their hats were also of yellow.

Attended by Larz Anderson.
Mr. Huidekoper was attended by Larz Anderson, of Boston and Washington, at best man, and the ushers were W. W. Hopper, of New York; Francis B. Crowninshield, of Boston; Alexander Legare, of Washington; Charles A. Hinkle, and the bride's brother, Stuart Elliott.

After their wedding trip, Mr. Huidekoper will bring his bride to Washington. They will make their home at the Huidekoper residence, 1614 Eighteenth street, which has been remodeled and redecorated for the coming of its new mistress. The addition of a handsome ballroom lends color to the supposition that Mr. and Mrs. Huidekoper will entertain frequently and elaborately this winter.

Secretary Redfield Returns.
The Secretary of Commerce and Mr. Redfield returned to Washington today after a motor trip through New England and a visit of several days to their summer home, on MacMahon Island, Maine. They were accompanied by their son, Humphrey Redfield.

Goes to Annapolis.
Lieut. William A. Snow, U. S. A., who was the guest of Harry Meem, left Washington the first of the week to visit his cousin, Lieut. C. C. Jersey, U. S. N., who is stationed in Annapolis. From there he will go to Annapolis, N. J., for a visit before joining his regiment on the border. Lieutenant Snow was graduated from West Point last June. His parents, Col. and Mrs. W. J. Snow, who have been stationed at Fort Stotsenburg, in the Philippines, since their departure from Washington about a year ago, have reached their new post at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. Colonel Snow is in command of the artillery post at Schofield Barracks.

Col. and Mrs. F. J. Koester, who left Washington a year ago for the Philippines, where Colonel Koester was stationed at Fort Macfadyen, have gone to Fort Stotsenburg, where Colonel Koester will be on duty.

Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr., wife of Captain Baldwin, U. S. A., and her sister, Miss Katherine Judge, who are in New York, will return to Washington at the end of the week. Captain and Mrs. Baldwin have as their guest at their home in K street, Captain Baldwin's mother, Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin, of Catonsville, Md., widow of General Baldwin.

At Arcadia Farms.
Mrs. Herbert Shipman, who has spent the greater part of the summer in her cottage at Newport, is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, at their summer home, Arcadia Farms, on Wellesley Island, Alexandria Bay, Thousand Islands, N. Y. Lieut. J. C. Fremont, U. S. N., is also a guest at the Bradley place.

The marriage is announced in New York of Miss Mary Humphrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Humphrey, of Bridgeport, Conn., to Mr. Jose Diaz of Mexico, son of the former President of Mexico, Porfirio Diaz. Mr. Diaz is now located in New York. The marriage took place in Greenwich, Conn., September 2. Mr. Diaz is connected with one of the ammunition factories in Bridgeport.

Miss Katherine Shoemaker, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. William L. Shoemaker, U. S. N., is the guest of Miss Estelle E. Revere.

Mrs. Shoemaker and Miss Carolyn Shoemaker are also in Washington, and will remain here during the winter. Miss Katherine Shoemaker will go to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., early in October to enter Vassar College.

Lieut. Maxwell Murray, U. S. A., has been detailed as assistant professor of military science and tactics at Michigan Agricultural College, Lansing, Mich. Lieutenant Murray is the son of Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, U. S. A., and a brother of Mrs. Ord Preston and Mrs. Conger Pratt.

Miss Ellis to Wed Tonight.
The marriage of Miss Cornelia Horford Ellis, daughter of Major and Mrs. William Mumford Ellis, of Shawville, Va., to Yelverton Evans Booker, of Washington, will take place this evening at Madison, the beautiful old home of Major and Mrs. Ellis at Shawville.

Miss Pearl Ellis will be maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Julia Ellis, Miss Lella Ellis, Miss Mary Radford, of Washington, the bride's cousin, Mr. Booker's sister, Miss Marian E. Booker, of Richmond, and Miss Elizabeth White, of Shawville.

W. Selden Washington, Ronald Beaumont, and Walter H. Dunlap, all of Washington; James Earle Holliday, of Sumter, S. C., and J. Tyler Ellis, will serve as ushers, and the best man will be P. W. Havens, of Nantux, Pa.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception. After their wedding trip, Mr. Booker and his bride will come to Washington. They have taken an apartment in the Charlotte. Miss Ellis is the granddaughter of President Tyler. Mr. Booker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Booker, formerly of Amelia county, Va., now of Richmond. One of his sisters is Mrs. Harold Godwin, of Georgetown.

Mrs. M. D. Owen-Cahoon has returned to Washington and is at the Shoreham for a short stay.

Mrs. John Allen Dougherty, of New York, is also stopping at the Shoreham and of others at the hotel are Mrs. Stanley McCormack, of Chicago, and Mrs. Mary Lee Webb, of Alabama.

James W. Gerald, American ambassador to Berlin, is expected to come to this country some time in November on leave of absence and for consultation with the State Department. His trip would follow the precedent set by Walter Hines Page, ambassador at London, and by William G. Sharp, ambassador at Paris.

BERNSTORFFS WILL RETURN THIS MONTH

German Embassy Being Renovated and Improved for Master and Mistress.

Countess von Bernstorff, who is at the German summer embassy at Rye, N. Y., will accompany the German ambassador to Washington by the end of the month.

In anticipation of the return of its mistress, a number of alterations and improvements have been made to the embassy in Massachusetts avenue, which is owned by the German government, and the offices of the staff have been transferred to rented premises next door. The present embassy will be used only as a home for the ambassador. The entire lower floor has been rearranged into reception rooms, and many changes have been made in the upper floors. An inside entrance between the two houses has been provided.

Miss Ursula Fairfax Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Harrison, of Belvoir, and Miss Josephine Tunstall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Lockey, of the American Lord Fairfax, will be bridesmaids at the marriage of Miss Elsie Watts, of Baltimore, daughter of Mr. Arthur T. Lockey, to Thomas Cassidy. The ceremony will be performed at The Maples, Belair, Md., on Wednesday, September 25. Miss Watts is a niece of Dr. James F. Mitchell.

Capt. and Mrs. Bristol Return.
Capt. and Mrs. Mark Bristol are in Washington and have opened their house in Massachusetts avenue for a fortnight before leaving for Old Point Comfort, where Captain Bristol's ship, the North Carolina, is stationed temporarily.

Captain and Mrs. Bristol have been missed greatly by Washington society. After several years in the Capital, they left in March for Pensacola, Fla., where Captain Bristol took charge of the aviation service of the navy and command of the North Carolina, with headquarters at Pensacola.

Mrs. Henry, wife of Sidney M. Henry, naval constructor, U. S. N., has gone to the White Sulphur Springs for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. William F. Draper was hostess at a dinner last evening at the Orchid, her Newport villa.

Van H. Manning has gone to New York for a short stay, and is stopping at the Plaza Hotel.

Attended by Larz Anderson.
Mr. Huidekoper was attended by Larz Anderson, of Boston and Washington, at best man, and the ushers were W. W. Hopper, of New York; Francis B. Crowninshield, of Boston; Alexander Legare, of Washington; Charles A. Hinkle, and the bride's brother, Stuart Elliott.

After their wedding trip, Mr. Huidekoper will bring his bride to Washington. They will make their home at the Huidekoper residence, 1614 Eighteenth street, which has been remodeled and redecorated for the coming of its new mistress. The addition of a handsome ballroom lends color to the supposition that Mr. and Mrs. Huidekoper will entertain frequently and elaborately this winter.

MRS. HUGHES WAS A BIRTHDAY TODAY

Wife of Presidential Candidate Receives Many Messages of Congratulation.

Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes is celebrating her birthday anniversary at Bridgehampton, L. I., today, and has received numerous messages and telegrams of congratulation.

Many of her friends have ventured to express the hope that when her next birthday rolls round she will celebrate it in the White House. Mr. Hughes joined his wife at Bridgehampton yesterday in time to take part in the informal festivities which mark the day.

Madame Ekengren, wife of the minister of Sweden, returned to town today from Edgartown, Mass., where the legation was established for the summer. The minister's return preceded hers.

Luncheon for Mrs. Barnett.
Mrs. Barnett, wife of Maj. Gen. George Barnett, U. S. M. C., who is visiting Mrs. Irving H. Chase in Newport, was the guest of honor at a luncheon which Mrs. Gassam gave yesterday. Other guests were Miss Dorothy Willard, Dr. Joseph Leidy, and Milton Haldridge, who is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Eustis have as their guests for a fortnight in Newport Mr. Joseph Leidy, William A. Street, of New York, who has recovered from a serious illness. Miss Susan W. Street, Mrs. Eustis' sister, is also their guest.

Caruso to Earn $6,666 Per Night

Signs Contract to Sing Thirty
Times in Buenos Aires.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—At the close of the next opera season Enrico Caruso will not return to his native Italy, as in other years.

Instead he will go to Buenos Aires for the summer. No doubt he will miss his three villas near Florence, where he passes the summers; but he will be amply repaid. He has just signed a contract to sing thirty performances at the Colon Opera House, for which he will receive $30,000. This is $6,666 a performance, or more than twice his salary at the Metropolitan. Probably this is the largest amount ever paid to an opera singer for a full season's work.

Mr. Caruso recently left Florence. In a letter to a New York friend he said there had been no rain for three months and that there was lack of water and great discomfort. Because of that he has gone to Monte Catini for the summer waters there. Thence he will go to Naples before coming to New York.

Takes Wife for Burglar.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—Max Cohen, who sleeps in the rear of his store, in Brooklyn, was awakened early by some one opening the door between his bedroom and the shop. He struck the intruder on the head with an iron pipe, then turned on the light and saw his wife lying on the floor with blood streaming from a cut on the head. He thought she was a burglar.

"Cure Your Rupture Like I Cured Mine"

Old Sea Captain Cured His Own
Rupture After Doctors Said
"Operate or Die."

His Remedy and Book Sent Free.

Captain Collings sailed the seas for many years; then he sustained a bad double rupture that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for years. He tried doctor after doctor but all failed. He was told to "Operate or Die." Finally, he was assured that he must either submit to a dangerous and abortive operation or die. He did neither! He cured himself instead.

Anyone can use the same method. It's simple, easy, safe and inexpensive. Every ruptured person in the world should have the Captain Collings book, telling all about how he cured himself, and how anyone may follow the same treatment in their own home without any trouble. The book and medicine are FREE. They will be sent prepaid to any ruptured sufferer who will fill out the below coupon. But send it right away—now—before you put down this paper.

FREE RUPTURE BOOK AND REMEDY COUPON.
